

STA

Science
Teachers Association of Queensland

A professional discussion about Numerical Skills in Science

In identifying the type of analytical and evaluative skills needed to complete the IA2 in Year 11, teachers have requested some guidance regarding the development of these skills prior to the need to incorporate them in an assessment task. Experienced teachers in Biology, Chemistry, Earth and Environmental Science, and Physics will discuss how they model and have students practice these skills in their lower secondary science classes.

FIND OUT MORE | staq.qld.edu.au

Wed 11 May | 7 PM

register here: www.staq.qld.edu.au/pd-events/professional-development/

Science Connect

conversations will be underpinned by all
competencies essential
for investigations,
including numeracy
skills